

MKKA

The first two are from April, 2009 . . . the rest are from 5/17/2012

Russ Johnson makes a new friend, Snickers, a Jardine's Parrot.

President Brad Swanson auctioning off a pair of killifish.

Jenny, Carter, Andy, Craig, Robin and Jason enjoying themselves.

Items available at our meetings include wingless fruit fly cultures and media.

Craig Rees giving a presentation on collecting and caring for killie eggs.

Craig looking for eggs in the mop.

Club members listening intently to Craig's presentation. Is Gene dozing or just counting the holes in his eyelids?

Margie and Craig looking for eggs on the peat.

Milo showing Margie, Carter and Jason the proper way to replace a battery.
